ACCESS HUMBOLDT HOSTS COMMUNITY OPEN HOUSE AND CELEBRATION AT NEW EUREKA LOCATION

EUREKA, CA — Tuesday, September 29 — Access Humboldt invites community members, local media creators, and area residents to attend an open house and member mingle at its new facility on Wednesday, October 28, at 5:00 PM. The event will take place at 341 West Harris Street in Eureka.

The Open House offers attendees an exclusive look at Access Humboldt's proposed media facilities, technology suites, and production resources. Guests can tour the new space, meet staff members and local community producers, and discover how to access equipment, training, and broadcast opportunities to share their own local stories.

In addition to facility tours and equipment demonstrations, attendees will have the opportunity to connect with local leaders, learn about upcoming digital literacy classes, and explore ways to get involved with community-created media in Humboldt County.

"We invite folks to envision the new space with us," said Executive Director Christina Marie Jeffers. "This Open House is a first step to engage our community's creative energy and civic spirit to collectively build an extraordinary thing for Humboldt. Whether you are a seasoned content creator or simply curious about what Access Humboldt offers, we welcome everyone to come tour the facility, meet our team, and see how we can support your media goals."

Event Information & RSVPs

The Open House is free and open to all members of the public. The evening is pot luck, so bring an appetizer or dessert if you like. For more information about the event or Access Humboldt's community media services, please visit accesshumboldt.net or call 707-443-9352.
